The United States Marine Corps Memorial is located at the intersecting of Highways 6 and 40 in Golden, Colorado.

It was the realization of a long held dream of SSgt Cyrus "Bo" Bowers, a veteran of World War II and Korea. Wartime experience left him with the conviction of being a "Special Breed." The Marines who have served in the United States Marine Corps deserved a fitting recognition of their service and sacrifice.

The WMA CO-1 is a 501 (c) (3) organization comprised of women who have served or are serving honorably in the United States Marine Corps regular or reserve components. Since 1918, American women have answered their country's call to serve. They have served proudly with distinction and honor; each generation evolving but always retaining their proud traditions.

The Colorado Columbine - WM History Chapter financially supports the Women of the Corps collection preserving the history of all women Marines past, present and future.
