

SIG
NAT
URE
EVENT

Tribute
TO A FIGHTER
PILOT

September 28, 2013

REDEYES

120th Fighter Squadron of the Colorado Air National Guard

2013 Tribute to a Fighter Pilot

Saturday, September 28, 2013 at 6:00 p.m.

Honoring the 120th Fighter Squadron of the Colorado Air National Guard.

Join us for a night of war stories and tales of flight from alumni and current members of the 120th Fighter Squadron.

The "REDEYES" of the 120th Fighter Squadron began service on June 27, 1923.

In 1946, they became the first Air National Guard unit to obtain federal recognition, thus the motto, "FIRST IN THE AIR GUARD."

Tickets are available for purchase at WingsMuseum.org.

For more information, please contact us at 303.360.5360 X110 or Info@WingsMuseum.org

Flight suits or flight attire is encouraged (bag strike approved).

Celebrating 90 Years of Service

Initially composed of 8 officers and 50 enlisted members

WingsMuseum.org

The "Minutemen" of the 120th Fighter Squadron flew more than 100 air shows, thrilling spectators in North and South America during 1959 and 1960—the Air National Guard's first and only aerial demonstration team.

PLANES FLOWN • Curtiss JN 4-E "Jennie" • P-51 Mustang • F-100C "Super Sabre" • A-7D "Corsair II" • F-16C "Falcon"

Tickets available for purchase at WingsMuseum.org.
For more information, please contact us at 303.360.5360 X110 or EMAIL

